

COMUNICATO STAMPA
MARIELLA BURANI FASHION GROUP
Cavriago, September 14, 2009

With respect to recent press clippings, the Company specifies that the arguments reported are currently under discussion. The Company confirms that, in its restructuring program, it is not contemplating the sale of strategic assets, including Antichi Pellettieri and its subsidiary companies, as erroneously reported by the press today.

A Board meeting was not held today. The Board of Directors of MBFG will be convened without delay, as soon as further details of the complete restructuring plan are available and the topics of discussion are further defined.
